- The Permit Holder is responsible for enforcing and ensuring all participants follow the permit & park rules as stated in the Field Rental Guide.
- All litter must be removed from fields and adjacent areas, including parking lots.
- Respect the neighbors by not parking in front of driveways, kicking balls against fences, blowing horns or noise makers, congregating near homes, or urinating in public.
- Smoking and glass beverage containers are not allowed in City Parks.
- Proper care and use of fields are expected. Do not play on closed/wet fields.
- Sign up to receive field condition alerts at srcity.org/sports-programs-fields or call the field conditions hotline at 707-53-3474.
- A Portlet/Storage Container Form must be submitted and APPROVED before placing in the park.
- A key deposit is required for any keys issued. Keys cannot be duplicated and must be returned at the end of the season to receive your deposit refund.
- Email park or field maintenance concerns to parksmaintenance@srcity.org or call 707-543-3770.
- For questions regarding permits, email sports@srcity.org or call 707-543-4317.
- To report any illegal activity in the park, call the non-emergency Police line at (707) 528-5222.
- Cancellation & change fees may apply once the permit has been issued (unless City closes fields).
- Not being a responsible field user could result in the forfeiture of the permit.
